ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children,
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely!
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples.
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather and bring to thee gracious salutations.
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus;
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

KEVIN J. O'KEEFE

PROFESSOR OF HISTORY

Dr. O'Keefe, the 1986 recipient of Stetson University's highest faculty honor, the McEniry Award for Excellence in Teaching, has been a member of the faculty since 1975. The McEniry Award, which honors the memory of former Dean of the University William Hugh McEniry, recognizes "the highest attainment of scholarly and teaching excellence."

A specialist in American diplomatic and military science, he received a bachelor's degree in history from Queens College in New York; a master's from St.

John's University; and a doctorate, also in history, from New York University. He also studied at Exeter College in Oxford, England.

Prior to his appointment at Stetson, Dr. O'Keefe was a member of the faculties of Adelphi University and Eastern Illinois University.

A recognized expert in his field, Dr. O'Keefe is the author of A Thousand Deadlines: The Press, Propaganda and American Neutrality, 1914-1917, and is researching a textbook for military science classes. He frequently teaches Winter Term courses on military history, including one last January, "The Gulf War: A Year Retrospective."

He is past president of the Florida College Teachers of History, and is a member of the Society of Historians of American Foreign Relations.
